POLITICAL FIRE WILL BE SET OFF AT RICE MEETING

Two Gatherings Tonight on Behalf of Candidate for Delegate

There will undoubtedly be some fireworks this evening in two spots in this city, when Charles A. Rice and his father, W. H. Rice, Sr., speak at meetings in the second and twelfth precincts of the fourth district. At the meeting in the grounds of the Moiliili school house, at half past seven o'clock this evening it is expected that the gathering will really be a mass meeting of voters from not only the second, but also from the first and third precincts, which converge near the schoolhouse.

Every arrangement has been made for this big meeting and W. H. Rice, Sr., will be the principal speaker in Hawaiian of the evening here, with the candidate for Delegate to Congress speaking in English. It is hinted that both will come out in no uncertain terms in regard to the stand which Charles A. Rice takes as candidate for Delegate to Congress.

Among the speakers at this meeting will be J. A. Akina, A. St. C. Pili-ana, William Moosman, Alexander Lindsey, Jr., Arthur Kahaawini, Clarence H. Olson and Lorin Andrews.

At the meeting at the Holy Ghost Grounds on Punchbowl Drive, the speakers will include Charles H. Rice, A. D. Castro, Alexander Lindsey, Jr., Ed Towse, Lorin Andrews and L. R. Medeiros.

Tomorrow evening at 7:30 p. m., there will be a mass meeting at the Pumping Station near the Kamehameha Schools, Kalihii Camp and at School and Liliha streets. Both Charles A. Rice, the candidate for the nomination of Delegate to Congress, and his father, W. H. Rice, Sr., will be the main speakers, assisted by a number of other well known orators.

On Wednesday evening two big mass meetings have been arranged for, one in Kakaako and one in Thomas Square. The Kakaako meeting will be for the voters of the 6th and 7th precincts although everybody will be welcome. It is probable that Charles A. Rice will make a brief trip to Kaula on business next Thursday, but will return in a few days and renew his campaign here and also on Maui.

PUBLIC ACCOUNTING TO BE DISCUSSED AT DINNER OF AD CLUB

A special dinner, followed by a public discussion on the subject "Public Accounting in Conformity with the System of Accounting Adopted by the United States Bureau of the Census," will be held in the dining room on the sixth floor of the Young Hotel building at 6:30 o'clock Thursday evening, under the auspices of the Honolulu Ad Club. Every member of the Ad Club is working toward making this event one of the largest attended and most interesting and instructive public meetings ever held by the organization.

The general discussion will be a following out of the methods and suggestions advised by H. Gooding Field, late auditor of the Hawaii county investigating committee, in his recent address to the members of the Ad Club on the subject "Our Public Financial Problems." Intense interest is being shown in the public discussion regarding the revision of the territory's accounting control of public finances not only because it is believed it would be of vital importance and value, but because such revision would be in line with similar work now being done in all the leading cities of the United States and Canada. It is believed that without such a revised system, the public would be entirely at a loss regarding the cost of operation of the various governmental departments.

MOTHER! IS CHILD'S STOMACH SOUR, SICK?

If tongue is coated or if cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember, there are counterfeiters sold here, so surely look, and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup—advertisement.

NATIONAL GUARD NOTICE.

POWER OF PRESS SUBJECT OF REV. WILLIAM H. FRY

Church and Daily Newspapers
Not Rivals, Declares New Methodist Pastor

The Rev. Dr. Fry of the Methodist church preached the second sermon in the present Sunday evening series to a large congregation last night. His topic was "The Relation of the Church to the Secular Press." He said in part:

"Among the many departments of the average daily paper the business and editorial departments are the most important. The former is usually superintended by a man with great adaptability for his work, with the skill of a general and the nerve of a statesman. The editor is usually a gifted writer who, by virtue of his office, is the scapegoat for the sins and follies of the whole institution. He has unlimited power for good or evil and assumes to do what another persons would not dare to do without danger to property and person. In his hand the cold type becomes the hammer that makes or breaks and when he wills the editor lets it fall upon the heads of governments, institutions, dignitaries and private citizens both high and lowly. Hence no man is more to be feared than the editor. But the originality and individuality of the old time editor is fast becoming a thing of the past, many of the large dailies are owned by stock companies and corporations, the chief concern of whose stockholders is larger dividends. This has the tendency to change a free press into a time-serving press and shift the responsibility from an individual to a syndicate.

"The reporter, though by no means so conspicuous as the editor, is none the less a very important factor in the life and prosperity of the paper. Many of them write with great ability and accuracy what they contribute largely to the news columns. It is the reporter with whom the church has most to do and to him we are indebted for a thousand courtesies. During the past 14 years I have been pastor of churches in large cities and the memory of my associations with newspaper reporters during that time is truly delightful. They are genial, affable, optimistic and interesting, but never bashful.

"Upon one occasion when D. L. Moody was holding a revival service a fine looking young man walked into the inquiry room. Mr. Moody placed his hand upon the young man's shoulder and asked: 'My young friend, are you saved?' With unaffected surprise the young man quickly replied, 'He saved, not I; why, I'm a reporter.'

"Among the sons of men none really know a great city as do the reporters. They have sounded its depths and know the house of crime and the house of worship, and the house of festival. They are familiar with the church and with the nether world. They have seen the greater and lesser wheels of administrative machinery in motion. They have learned how to reach the notetaker and police sergeant behind his desk, and how to unravel and knit together the varying tales of the bystanders. The streets of the city are known to him as to no other man. He has seen them in the gray morning while busy tollers converge toward the market place; he has watched the ebbing tide at evening when the working day is done. He sees them empty when the theater is full and full when the theater is empty. He knows the streets of danger full of news and the streets full of newspaper readers and safety. Hence no one knows things better than the reporter. Who wouldn't be a reporter and know everything and everyone?"

"It is said by some that the church and daily newspaper are rivals. Absurd mistake. When they stand together there are the mightiest forces for right that this old world knows anything about. The responsibility of reforming society cannot be left at the door of the church any more than at the door of the daily press. Both must share the responsibility. Can you imagine what a paradise some of the cities of America would be if, for the next five years the church and the press had stood side by side in all matters of reform? The hatchways that cover smoldering vice should be lifted. Wickedness in high places would be dethroned and our streets become like the streets of the New Jerusalem through which the redeemed might march ransom and free to their Father's house."

CHARGE OF MISCONDUCT MADE AGAINST GEORGE A. DAVIS, IS REPORT

According to a statement made this morning by Judge Sanford B. Dole, he is making an informal investigation of an oral complaint said to have been made to him by Attorney J. Magoon against United States Commissioner George A. Davis. According to a rumor which went the rounds of the federal building, starting shortly after a conference between Judge Dole, Attorney L. Andrews and Commissioner Davis in the chambers of the federal jurist, the motive for the alleged complaint was brought about when Attorney Magoon, took exception to certain alleged misconduct on the part of Commissioner Davis.

When interviewed regarding the authenticity of the rumor, Judge Dole chose to speak but briefly on the matter. He intimated that such a complaint had been made to him, but did not divulge the explicit nature of it. He said:

"In view of information received by the federal court, it is conducting an informal investigation of alleged mis-

Commissioner Davis, when interviewed in the matter shortly after the consultation in Judge Dole's office, declined to make any statement, except to say:

"I suppose the whole thing has gone
up in smoke by this time."

Attorney Magoon denied the rumor, saying that he had filed no complaint against the United States commissioner.

Judge Dole further stated that no action will be taken regarding the alleged complaint until he has finished his informal investigation in the matter.
